

the PITTSBURGH CAMERATA

Mark Anderson, Artistic Director

The Pittsburgh Camerata is a professional vocal ensemble performing primarily a cappella choral music. Founded in 1974, the Camerata specializes in the entire choral repertory with a unique focus on Renaissance/Baroque and 20th/21st century works. Under the direction of Mark Anderson, the ensemble presents a subscription concert series each season in Pittsburgh and its surrounding suburbs.