

Gail Luley has been Director of Music at Sixth Presbyterian Church since 1996 and Managing Director of The Pittsburgh Camerata since 1998. (She was a singing member of the Camerata from the late 1980s until 2014.) Gail also served as Managing Director of Renaissance & Baroque—the presenting organization for early music performances in Pittsburgh—from 2009-2016. An experienced educator, administrator and musician, Ms. Luley is skilled at balancing multiple responsibilities, increasing efficiency, managing projects and working with people (especially musicians!). She has been a member of the AGO since moving to Pittsburgh in 1984.